

Textures in Art w/Antoni Gaudi

Artist: Mindy Kirton
March 2021

Inspired by the textures found in the architectural designs of Antoni Gaudi, students explore creating actual texture on a clay surface. Clay laid out on a piece of cardboard is enhanced by adding various tiny objects such as tiles, beads or glass beads to create texture. Like the buildings and designs created by Gaudi, there is an emphasis of balance and harmony.

STUDENT NAME

TEACHER/ROOM

